A Colourful New Year at Miller Paint

Miller Paint Company, your Employee Owned, Northwest based paint company, is releasing a collection of colors chosen specifically for 2010. When stores re-open for business on January 2nd (closed New Year's Day), the Colour Canvas 2010 color card will be available.

The Colour Canvas 2010 Collection contains 5 thematic groups of colors: Building Beauty, Beige Boutique, Respect, Radical, and Reactive. The groups of colors are considered to be emerging trends that will likely be seen next on runways or in decorating magazines.

Under the inspiration of the Colour Canvas 2010 collection, walls become a canvas of lively tones or serene shades. Presented in a handy pocket size portfolio, each color can be conveniently compared to your existing or potential choices. Enjoy the convenience, match your personality, mood or taste, and see your décor turn into a colorful canvas.

Miller Paint Company has been creating products built specifically for the Pacific Northwest since 1890. Miller Paint and the new Colour Canvas Collection can be found at any of the 33 company owned stores in Oregon and Washington, with our paint also available at Fred Meyers throughout Oregon and SW Washington, and at select private dealers.
